

NPAP

Curious About Psychoanalytic Training?

Let NPAP Prepare You For a Fulfilling Career

Open House

Sunday, October 22

1:00-3:30pm

Brunch will be served

RSVP

Call
212.924.7440
or email
admin@npap.org

Looking for a new career?

Sharpen and invigorate the therapeutic work you already do?

Enhance your own personal and professional growth?

- ◆ NPAP offers training for people at all levels of clinical experience or no experience at all.
- ◆ NPAP trains candidates from many backgrounds – the arts and sciences, humanities, social sciences, psychology, medicine, law, and business.
- ◆ Fulfill requirements for NYS license in psychoanalysis. Acquire experience for LMSW and MA in psychology licenses.
- ◆ NPAP's referral service provides clinical experience for all candidates and an opportunity for a stipend.
- ◆ Candidates work toward building private practices while training.

NPAP's VISION

Creating a more humane world through the transformative power of psychoanalysis.

NPAP's MISSION

NPAP educates psychoanalysts in diverse theories, provides a public forum for interdisciplinary discussion of contemporary issues, and delivers affordable psychotherapy and psychoanalysis to the community.

NPAP is

- ◆ one of the oldest and largest non-medical psychoanalytic institutes in the country, founded in 1948 by Sigmund Freud's protégé Theodor Reik.
- ◆ home of The Psychoanalytic Review, the oldest psychoanalytic journal in English.

NPAP | 40 West 13th Street | New York, NY 10011 | 212.924.7440 | npap.org

National Psychological Association for Psychoanalysis