

The Psychoanalytic Review: Call for Papers

The March 2022 issue of The Psychoanalytic Review will focus on papers on racial injustice. This is a reminder that there is still room for papers on that subject. Papers can vary in approach and content, but must be psychoanalytically oriented and should not exceed between 15 and 20 pages of a double-spaced manuscript with appropriate references.

Deadline: November 10, 2021.
